Behaviour Policy Aims

At Athersley South Primary School it is our overall aim to encourage self-discipline, positive behaviour and mutual respect for all. Successfully working towards these goals will enable us to build a school where children, staff and parents have respect for each other and the environment in which they work.

Our policies, strategies and guidance aim to establish a positive ethos and promote effective learning by establishing:

- Clearly stated expectations of what constitutes acceptable behaviour
- Effective use of our behaviour-management strategies
- Consistent use of our reward strategy which recognises, teaches, rewards and celebrates positive behaviour
- Consistent application of the school rules and sanctions that address poor conduct.

The Governors, Head Teacher and Leadership Team work with all staff in school to develop and review disciplinary measures. Respect has to be given in order to be received. Parents and carers, pupils and teachers all need to operate in a culture of mutual regard. That said, ‘Children have a right to learn’. Poor behaviour cannot be tolerated as it is a denial of the right of pupils to learn and teachers to teach. To enable learning to take place preventative action is the most effective, but where this fails, our policy will have clear, firm and intelligent strategies in place to help pupils manage their behaviour. Our Home School Agreement (found in the Appendix) identifies the expectations of School, Parents and Carers in establishing and maintaining high levels of behaviour.

Positive Behaviour Strategy

This is an outline of positive behaviour systems in our school. Simplicity and common purpose are key to its success as is the common language that surrounds this. This is also effective for our sanctions.

The General Roles of Teaching and Non-Teaching Staff in Supporting and Encouraging Positive Behaviour

Having high expectations of every child and a consistent approach is essential to the success of our behaviour management systems.

- For safety reasons children must be escorted from the building at break, lunchtime and home time. No child must be left unsupervised unless they are in the category of Trusted Children.
- Staff should be on the corridors on a morning to welcome the children, at break and lunchtimes as above and at home time to ensure the children leave the building safely.
- Children are expected to follow the corridor code ‘smart, silent, sensible’ when moving around school.
- Staff must be punctual arriving on the yard when on duty, when collecting classes from the yard and from assembly. If you expect to be delayed then arrangements must be made with a colleague to ‘cover’ your class. This is essential to maximise learning time.
- LSA’s on playground duty should leave their classrooms 5 minutes before break starts and be on the corridor and playground to receive the children.
- Senior staff to be responsible for children sent to the Thinking Room.
- All senior members of staff to be available, if necessary, at lunchtime to support SMSA’s.

The Roles of ‘Trusted Children’

It is important to encourage all children to play their part in ensuring a positive, happy atmosphere in school. Giving children in each class responsibilities can promote this as can giving older children the opportunity to volunteer as:

- Monitors - named children who can support teachers and SMSA's on indoor duty monitoring corridors, cloakrooms, toilets, filling water jugs at lunchtime in the dining room etc and offering support to children who need it.
- Office Helpers - named children who support office staff with delivery of mail/other items
- Young Leaders – Trained Y6 children who have completed the Young Leaders programme and who support children playing games on the playground.

School Rewards - The 5 R's and The 5 G's

Resilience – we know that learning/playing are sometimes hard, but we are resilient and we stick at it.

Five ways to promote resilience

1. Give team activities with no “correct” answer, such as building structures to fulfil set criteria.
2. Create “have a go” sessions and model “having a go” yourself.
3. Organise outside speakers to talk of the necessity of resilience in their work/field.
4. Set challenges based on improvements, not overall scores and draw attention to the improvements.
5. Explore the idea of failure and show children alternative ways of managing it.

Responsibility – We are responsible for our classroom, school, our learning and one another.

Five ways to promote responsibility

1. Ask the children to consider “what if?” questions
2. Do exercises that involve considering the outcomes of various scenarios.
3. Involving children in writing the week's “to do” list.
4. Distribute the responsibility roles – furniture monitor, book monitor etc – throughout the class. Change the people at agreed times – give all a chance to be responsible.
5. Set up a buddy system and give paired assignments.

Resourcefulness – We are resourceful and make good choices about ourselves and about our work.

Five ways to promote resourcefulness

1. Set tasks where children have to think of lots and lots of really good questions.
2. Play “test the teacher”, test each other and test yourself.
3. Set homework assignments that necessitate asking other people questions.
4. Volunteer your class to organise an aspect of a school function.
5. Set assignments that involve teaching or producing resources for younger children

Reasoning – We reason things through carefully and check our thinking as we go.

Five ways to promote reasoning

1. Give challenges such as “Write three facts about x, now find out one more for homework.
2. Explain your own reasoning when you describe everyday experiences.
3. Get the children to talk/mindmap themselves through solutions to problems.
4. Use problem solving templates in and around class – put the templates on large posters and use them to scaffold class activity
5. Encourage participation in games of scrabble, chess, computer games? that develop social, sustained concentration.

Risk Taking

Five ways to promote Healthy Risk Taking

1. Be aware of risks
2. Learn to understand your risks?
3. Create action plans and steps to make the risk smaller?
4. Determining the worst consequence and could I handle this consequence?
5. What would be the best possible consequence? Could I handle this?

Good Sitting on the Carpet/Chair

- Bottom on the carpet/chair
- Face the front
- Cross your legs if possible/Keep all chair legs on the floor
- Put your hands in your lap

Good Listening

- Keep your hands still
- Look at the speaker
- Hear what is said
- Think about it

Good Looking

- Have nothing in your hands
- Keep your hands and feet still
- Look into the speaker's eyes
- Keep your eyes on the speaker

Good Asking

- Practise the question in your mind
- Look at the other person
- Wait for quiet
- Speak slowly and clearly

Good Answering

- Listen carefully to the question
- Practise your answer in your head
- Think again if it is a good answer
- Put your hand up and wait quietly as you practise your answer in your head
- Speak slowly and clearly when you are asked to
- Wait for an answer

Ways of Rewarding Positive Behaviour and Attitudes

- Oral praise from all adults in school.
- Positive written comments on work in line with school policy - praising achievements and setting SMART targets.
- Success Stones

Success Stones for Achievement and Effort

Success Stones are our whole school reward system. Every child in FS2, KS1 and KS2 is in one of four teams – Eagles, Hawks, Falcons or Vultures. These team names originated from a whole school competition. Family members are placed in the same team and children stay in the same team throughout their time at our school to build and foster the team identity.

Teams have a captain from Y6 decided after an application process. Teams meet on an agreed basis and will compete together in sports events, competitions and various challenges throughout the school year.

All staff have the power to award success stones for positive behaviours, achievement and effort. If a child evidences the agreed behaviours from the 5Rs or the 5Gs they can get a success stone. Children will not get these success stones for complying once or twice – they need other encouragement to conform in the short term. Success stones, once awarded, are placed in a class jar. Once awarded, they cannot be removed.

Blanket giving success stones to a whole class is not permitted – teachers should find other means of rewarding whole class endeavour/achievement.

Examples of good learning are shown to the Headteacher/Deputy Headteacher and other staff, and where appropriate, put on display in the Head's office and/or on the school website on our Praise Page.

Lunchtimes

It is vital that lunchtime is seen to be no different from the rest of the school day and that our SMSA's are valued as important members of the staff team. Two-way communication between teaching staff and SMSA's is therefore crucial to ensure we achieve this.

Lunchtime and playtime behaviours are rewarded using the same system of success stones by staff on duty. SMSA's to be encouraged to award stickers to children displaying positive / caring behaviour etc.

Clear plans must be in place to manage the children during indoor lunchtimes. Using Peer Supporters and Trusted Helpers is to be encouraged.

Lunchtime ends when the bell is rung. A staff member rings the bell and children stand still. The staff member then rings the bell a second time and the children line up in the appropriate place, in a single line, quietly.

Learner of the Week

Celebration Assembly is Friday. These assemblies are to be a celebration of the talent and qualities of all and include spiritual and moral guidance. Teachers should try to ensure that this is fairly distributed throughout the year, with every child's positive behaviours recognised. Mrs Sanderson to write certificates for each recipient with a reason for the award. Children to be chosen are recorded on an electronic document in Teacher Shared. Attention should be given to the 5Gs and/or 5Rs.

The parents of the children receiving the award are invited to join us in assembly on a Friday and photographs of the children appear on our website on the Praise Page. Learners of the Week are also invited to dine on the 'Top Table' in the dining room with a senior member of staff. The children who are already in the dining room welcome the Top Table children in for lunch with a round of applause.

Class of the Week Trophy is awarded each week to two classes, one from FS2/KS1 and one KS2 in recognition of the quality of their learning, behaviour and overall attitude in the classroom and around school. A photograph is posted on the website and the class receives a £5 'reward' that can be spent or 'banked' for later in the year.

Each half term children will be chosen to display excellent examples of work on the school corridors and on the celebration of Maths / Writing boards.

Stickers, certificates, positions of responsibility and verbal praise are part of our good practice. Success Stone trips and treats- the children who are in the winning team at the end of the term are invited to participate in and enjoy a Success Stone 'Trip' or 'Treat'.

SANCTIONS

It is vital that the child understands why they are being punished – arbitrary sanctions breed resentment and, in the long run, exacerbate the problem. Consistency is vital. Once the sanction has been applied the teacher should always seek to restore the relationship – punishment is the price which, when paid, allows the child to start afresh.

In Class

If a child is not following the school rules, then implement the 'Steps to better behaviour':

- First 'Statement of reality – describe the behaviour'
- Next 'Language of choice – if you continue then you will...'
- If they still make the wrong choice, then children put their name on to the board / move their name on the behaviour traffic light system where used
- Children who continue to display these behaviours will continue to move along the traffic light system and may move to a parallel class for a fixed period of time (timeout) child takes timer to parallel class (where necessary, LSA/Team teach trained staff to take them)
- If they continue to display these behaviours, or display one of the behaviours outlined below the child will be removed from the class for the remainder of the session / day dependent upon the specifics of the situation.
- Children to attend inclusion (Thinking Room/Head's office at lunch time)

Children will put their name straight on to the board or bypass the behaviour progression if they:

- Physically assault a child or adult including deliberate pushing - may also be excluded (fixed term)
- Are involved in any form of child-on-child abuse
- Lie – dependent upon content and context
- Swear – dependent upon content and context
- Are caught in a group hurting, intimidating or using threatening behaviour
- Call someone an offensive name including racism or homophobia
- Steal
- Deliberately damage property
- Behave dangerously, including leaving a room without permission - this may also result in them being excluded (fixed term)

Lunchtime

SMSA's should be informed by class teachers of problems that have occurred during the morning with individual children if it is considered this could impact on lunchtime. If a child is being kept in at lunchtime it is the responsibility of the senior member of staff concerned to inform SMSA's.

SMSA's to keep class teachers informed re. misbehaviour incidents through the lunchtime.

Bullying/Homophobic/Racist incidents must be clearly marked on form with detail to record on CPOMS, including victims/bystanders names. Parents will be immediately informed. Senior Staff will meet parents/carers to discuss next steps. Regarding bullying, threatening behaviour, harassment, violence or intimidation, see our anti bullying policy.

The Role of the Pupil Learning Mentor

The Pupil Learning Mentor is a distinctive role supporting children with a wide variety of needs throughout school. The post holder is available to work with children either individually or in groups on a regular basis or when issues arise, and will also be on the playground at break times and lunch times to further support children. An important element of this role is liaison with others in school, class teachers and Leaders of Learning and also involving parents/carers as appropriate. The post holder will provide regular updates of children and groups being worked with to keep senior staff informed. This is overseen by the Headteacher.

Where the child or parent/carer refuses to remove/withdraw comments the school will pursue the matter legally and consider if the relationship is broken and whether they can continue to provide an education for the child/children in question. Adding behaviour information about individual children to CPOMS

1. Double click on the CPOMS icon on the desktop.
2. Enter your username and password – click Login
3. Click 'Login without Two Factor Authentication'
4. Click 'Add Incident' which brings up an incident record sheet. Begin typing the child's name who you are logging an incident about and click on their name.
5. Record details of the incident in the 'Incident' box. Click on the relevant category e.g. 'behaviour' and 'Parental Communication'. If a child is CIN, CP or has an EHA, these category boxes should also be ticked.
6. Where appropriate type in the names of 'linked students', this may be family members or another child/children involved in the incident (the incident does not then need to be recorded more than one as it will appear on the timeline of any child who has been logged)
7. If there are any injuries as a result of the incident these should be recorded on the body map.
8. The date and time should be identified. Remember to put the time of the incident otherwise it will default to the time that the incident was recorded. This can cause confusion later on the time line.
9. The necessary staff members should be alerted via the 'Alert Staff Members' tab.
10. Where appropriate, agencies involved with the child should also be 'tagged' via the 'Select Agencies' icon. When clicked, a drop down box showing a range of agencies that may need to be tagged.
11. Finally, click 'Add Incident'. This will log the incident and alert the necessary staff members.
12. If there is any further information to add to the incident after the point at which it is recorded e.g. the outcome of a meeting with a parent, a discussion with the SENDCO, a colleague or agency is involved in some way, return to the incident and click 'Add Action', completing the form in the same way as detailed above.

Please enter details of incidents of unacceptable behaviour as soon as possible after the event, ensuring factual accuracy and no ambiguity. Please be aware that these details will be seen by colleagues and potentially used by senior staff when discussing concerns with parents/carers. They could also be submitted to court in the future as part of any proceedings involving the child.
